

JUMY JOSEPH | Prof. Jain K George

Critical Appraisal of the Execution Process With respect To Implementing Agencies in Rajiv Awas Yojana Projects

Rajiv Awas Yojana scheme was launched by the Indian governments Ministry of housing and Urban Poverty Alleviation in June 2011 to achieve a “Slum Free India”. Despite the importance of RAY scheme in providing shelter for all, the implementation lacked efficiency in many phases. In this report, the execution and implementation of RAY schemes in Kochi, exactly in Thuruthy colony is discussed and critical analysis of the role of implementing agency has been looked upon. The nodal agency of RAY scheme is KUDUMBASREE while the implementing agency in Cochin Corporation. By comparing two cities that is Kochi and Trivandrum, this study aspire to come to a conclusion whether the RAY guidelines was followed perfectly and there by tries to give suggestions upon that. These suggestions are essential for rejuvenating the projects that were stagnant for more than 3years. Effective governance even from the grassroots level is quit essential for both economic and social development among the beneficiaries. Thus the implementing agencies role is quite fore standing for the success of RAY projects.

Keywords: Rajiv Awas Yojana scheme, Execution, Implementing Agency, Beneficiaries, Rejuvenating, Effective governance, Social Development.